

THREE MEMORIAL HALL FUNDS IN MRS. PELL'S WILL

Columbia, Rutgers and Church to Receive More Than $2,000,000 in All.

HEST TO HER COUSIN.

Miss Zabriskie, However, Has Only Life Interest—Provides for Pets.

Columbia University will receive more than $1,000,000 from the estate of Mrs. Mary R. Pell, widow of John R. Pell, under her will filed with the Surrogate yesterday. Rutgers College and the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America will each receive more than $500,000.

The largest individual beneficiary of the will is Mary C. Zabriskie of No. 4 West Thirty-sixth street, a first cousin of the deceased. She gets a life interest in $500,000, less an undivided life interest in the residuary estate, and during her lifetime is to have possession of the two houses of the deceased, No. 4 West Thirty-sixth street and the old Matthews place at West End street and Riverside Drive, which Mrs. Pell bought in 1885 for $250,000.

On Mrs. Zabriskie's death the residue of the estate—which totals more than $1,000,000—is to be divided among Frederick B. Hensch, William B. Hensch, Laura W. Hensch, Everett L. Zabriskie of Ridgewood, N. Y., and Mary A. Hensch of Manhattan, N. Y.

PETS TO FRIEND AND A MAID TO CARE FOR THEM.

Her dogs and cats and other pets, of which Mrs. Pell had many, she leaves to the care of Mary C. Zabriskie. The maid who is to care for them is to receive $5 a month as long as she continues in this service.

The property of No. 10-12 Broadway, the which Mrs. Pell owned, she bequeathed to her daughter, Mrs. Hensch, who directs to be sold, and $250,000 of the proceeds to be distributed as follows: $100,000 to Eleanor B. Hensch, $50,000 to Paul Wendell Hensch, $50,000 to Mary C. Zabriskie, $50,000 to Walter Hensch, $50,000 to John A. Hensch, $50,000 to Elizabeth Hensch, $50,000 to Catherine Hensch, $50,000 to Mollie B. Hensch, $50,000 to William B. Hensch, $50,000 to Laura W. Hensch, $50,000 to Frederick B. Hensch, $50,000 to Everett L. Zabriskie.

$500 to Mary Dunsbury, $500 to Elizabeth Ray, $500 to Katherine E. Frown, $500 to Rachel James, $500 to Alice Pearson.

All of these bequests are in trust, and on the death of each beneficiary the principal is to be distributed, two-thirds to Columbia University and one-third each to Rutgers and the General Synod. The will also fixes the amount of income that each of these funds shall yield its beneficiary and any surplus is to be divided among the three institutions.

THREE MEMORIAL BUILDINGS PROVIDED FOR.

The residue realized from the sale of this Broadway property is to be used as follows: $500,000 to Mary C. Zabriskie, on her death to go into the residuary estate; $500,000 to Rutgers College, with which to build a hall to be named the Westville Memorial Building; $500,000 to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America to erect a Westville Memorial Building at the theological seminary in New Brunswick, N. J., and the remainder to Columbia University to erect Pell Hall, named in honor of her husband, who graduated from Columbia. It is estimated that Columbia's Pell Hall fund will be more than $500,000.

The property, No. 3 Counties Slip, is bequeathed to Francis W. Demarest of Spring Valley, N. Y., and there are lines.

several small bequests aggregating $7,000.

Parsons, Clouston & McIlvaine of No. 22 William street are attorneys of record. Executors and trustees are the Metropolitan Trust Company and Beverly Chase.

Mrs. Wills $500,000 Suit.

A jury in the United States District Court yesterday found a verdict for Charles W. Morse, defendant in a suit for $50,000 brought against him on behalf of C. L. Charley of Paris, France. The litigation arose from transactions in securities of the American Ice Company and the Consolidated Steamship Company.

It Makes Little Difference What You Need—a World "Want" Will Go and Get It.

For P. S. A. L. Members

How to make your breakfast most nourishing

FOR physical tests such as you had this afternoon in Central Park, correct eating is quite as important as correct exercise.

How do you begin the day? Do you have plenty of whole wheat food with your breakfast?

How would you like to eat the same cereal that the committee, of which Mr. James E. Sullivan was secretary, selected for the athletes who represented America in last year's Olympic Games?

You can get it at any grocery store. It is "Force"—Toasted Wheat Flakes. "Force" is cooked with barley malt, which makes it digest quickly and thoroughly.

"Force" is eaten regularly at Yale, Princeton, Harvard and other big colleges. In addition to being a splendid food for strength, you'll enjoy its fine full flavor.

So be sure you get "Force" every morning with breakfast. And "Force" is good to eat after school as well.

Have "Force" tomorrow.
